

June

2017 EVENTS

THU 01

Institute of Music and Dance Presents: A Marygrove String Ensemble Concert

6 p.m. Liberal Arts Building, Marygrove College Theatre
This concert, led by Music Director and Conductor Anida Margariti, will feature the music of Handel, Mozart, Vivaldi, Piazzolla, and others.
Admission is free.
Contact: Judith Molina, (313) 927-1306

Library Book Sale

Liberal Arts Building, Nancy A. McDonough Geschke Library
Throughout the entire summer semester, the library will host its "Penny a Book" book sale in the reference room.
Contact: Theresa Spiteri, (313) 927-1540

SAT 03

Take the Marygrove College Campus Tour Extreme

10 a.m. - noon
The Marygrove Alumni Association will offer a guided tour of some familiar and not-so well-known spots across Marygrove's campus. Following the tour, there will be an optional gathering at Lou's Deli for lunch.
Contact: Mark Bartnik, (586) 306-4090, bartnikmark@hotmail.com

Institute of Music and Dance Annual Music Recital

4 p.m. Liberal Arts Building, Marygrove College Theatre
This concert will feature the Marygrove Jazz Ensemble and private music students. Admission is free.
Contact: Judith Molina, (313) 927-1306

WED 07

Brown Bag It with Dr. Beth Burns

12:30 - 1:30 p.m. Madame Cadillac Building, Faculty-Staff Dining Room
Bring your lunch and your questions for Marygrove's president! All are invited.

THU 08

President Burns Hosts General Staff and Faculty Meeting

Noon - 1 p.m. Liberal Arts Building, Library Lecture Hall
Join Dr. Burns for an important campus update.

SAT 10

The Forgotten Child: A Reading and Book Signing Event with Dr. Donald Levin

2 - 4 p.m.
Lawrence Street Gallery
22620 Woodward Avenue
Ferndale, MI
Former Dean of Faculty and Emeritus Professor of English Dr. Donald Levin will celebrate the publication of his newest novel, The Forgotten Child, with a book launch party, including a reading and book signing. This book is the fourth volume in his Martin Preuss mystery series. This event is free and open to the public.
Contact: Dr. Donald Levin, (313) 689-8870

Institute of Music & Dance Student Dance Concert

Saturday, June 10, 2:30 p.m. (Levels 2-4) & 6 p.m. (All Levels)
Sunday, June 11, 3 p.m. (All Levels)
Madame Cadillac Building, Marygrove College Theatre
Join ballet, tap, jazz, hip-hop and IMD Repertory Dancers for this two-day concert. Admission is $5.
Contact: Judith Molina, (313) 927-1306

FRI 16

Live6 Speakeasy

6 - 8 p.m. Madame Cadillac Building, Denk Chapman Hall
A "speakeasy" is a community conversation between neighbors, businesspeople, and representatives of anchor institutions in the Livernois-Six Mile area. The June 16 topic is "Neighborhood Arts & Culture-Existing Assets/Future Wants." Marygrove students, staff, and faculty are more than welcome to attend.
Contact Frank Rashid, (313) 927-1448, frashid@marygrove.edu

MARYGROVE
COLLEGE

Alumni Memorial Garden

